Media Release

Safe Futures

All students between the ages of 15 & 19 years interested in a career in rural Tasmanian industries are welcome to attend, as well as parents, careers staff and significant others.

Date: 6th August 2009
Venue: Riverlands, 159 Wellington Street, Longford

This event is an opportunity to promote rural career pathways and associated safety in agriculture and rural community, organized by a committee representing a partnership between Tasmanian Central North Local Community Partnership (TCNLCP), PASS Inc and Tasmanian Skills Institute,

The aim is:

- To showcase career pathways in the Agricultural sector.
- To provide awareness of hazards and dangers in the rural environment.
- To provide attendees with the skills and resources to access information required to help students achieve their chosen career path.
- To expose students to informative speakers who will share their experiences in their chosen field.
- To encourage young people to be aware of the risks associated with their chosen career.
- To encourage young people to be passionate about their career choice and to provide direction towards their chosen career.
- To encourage education and industry to work together to benefit the community as a whole.

Industry and Training Organisations will be present on the day to provide the necessary information required to help attendees map their pathway into their chosen career.

TCNLCP works with schools, industry and community to showcase career opportunities and associated pathways to young people.

Proactive Agricultural Safety and Support (PASS) Inc. aims to eliminate fatalities and injuries in rural workplaces in particular of young persons
